Mr. Wendell Branson
R. R. 2
Findley, Ohio

Dear Brother Branson:

Your invitation to speak at the opening services of the new building in Findley is appreciated. I have followed with interest the work there and am extremely happy for your success.

It is with extreme regret that I must decline your invitation. My schedule for this year is over crowded now and I have a mission meeting with the Huber Heights congregation in Dayton sometime later this fall also.

Please extend my congratulations to the entire group and especially to your fine preacher.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
